RECLAIM

Empowering the European Female Future

In cooperation with AMO and the Polish Robert Schuman Foundation

With kind support of the European Union CERV Program

Sunday, 13th October 2024 | 07:00 pm

Tuesday, 15th October 2024 | 04:30 pm

The RECLAIM closing event will highlight the core values crucial for shaping a female future and feminist policy-making, emphasizing the principles of community, solidarity, and allyship. Through engaging workshops, collaborative discussions, and an exploration of feminist movements in Berlin, participants will gain valuable insights into feminist leadership, community-building, and hands-on political activism. The event will feature inputs from best-case examples and role models, offering practical guidance and inspiration. This final session aims to empower participants to envision and champion a more equitable political landscape for women across Europe.
